

Waihi golfer's finally enjoyed a whole week of good weather, but the highlight of the week, was on Wednesday when popular lady player Kristine Gascoigne scored her first hole-n-one. She achieved it on the 145m, number six hole with its two tiered green. There are four par 3 holes on the Waihi course, and it seems rare for this feat to be scored on this particular hole, so well done Krissie.

VETS: At last, a nearly perfect Monday weather wise for the Vets section to compete in the first round of the annual par competition. A great field of 54 players enjoyed the fast drying course, and in the end a bit of parental dominance came into play. Denise Morgan, who is a quite new golfer, was leading the field up until the very last players came in, and then her father, Graham Jenkins, came in a pipped her by one to win! Family rivalry at its best! Results were Graham Jenkins +3, Denise Morgan, and Daryll Denyer +2, Anke Hermannsdorfer, Kristine Gascoigne, Allen Sarjant, Peter Wright, Dot Ramsey, and Vince Jones all finished square with the card.

NINE HOLE: The nine hole section also enjoyed a fine day, and in the ladies stableford competition, division 1, Helen Brady, won on a countback from Glen Bennett with 17 points, ahead of Lorraine Meyer, and Margaret Meldrum, both on 15. In division 2, Julia Nicolson with 15 points was first, followed by Jenni Mora, and Elaine Goodwin on 14. In the men's competition, Terry Paterson, and Norm Sanderson both finished with 15 points, ahead of Garth Pritchard (13).

WEDNESDAY LADIES: A field of 26 ladies enjoying the condition's, contested the nett haggles this week. And it is of no surprise that Kristine Gascoigne took out the top spot with a nett 69, although it was on a countback from Michelle Libby with the same score. Next was Carol Leary with 70, followed by Sarah Tomsett, and Jenny O'Dwyer, both with 71, and Helen Baynes 72. The Dreamers Player of the Week is Kristine Gascoigne with her Nett 69.

THURSDAY MEN: Good fields for the men's haggles, and in the morning division 1, Vince Jones showed a clean pair of heels to the rest with 42 points., Next was Daryll Denyer with 39, and Alex Standfield (38), then down to Allen Sarjant (34). In division 2, Graham O'Dwyer with 38, was well clear of Tom Rowbotham 34, Rodger Bagshaw 32, and Jock Stronach 31.

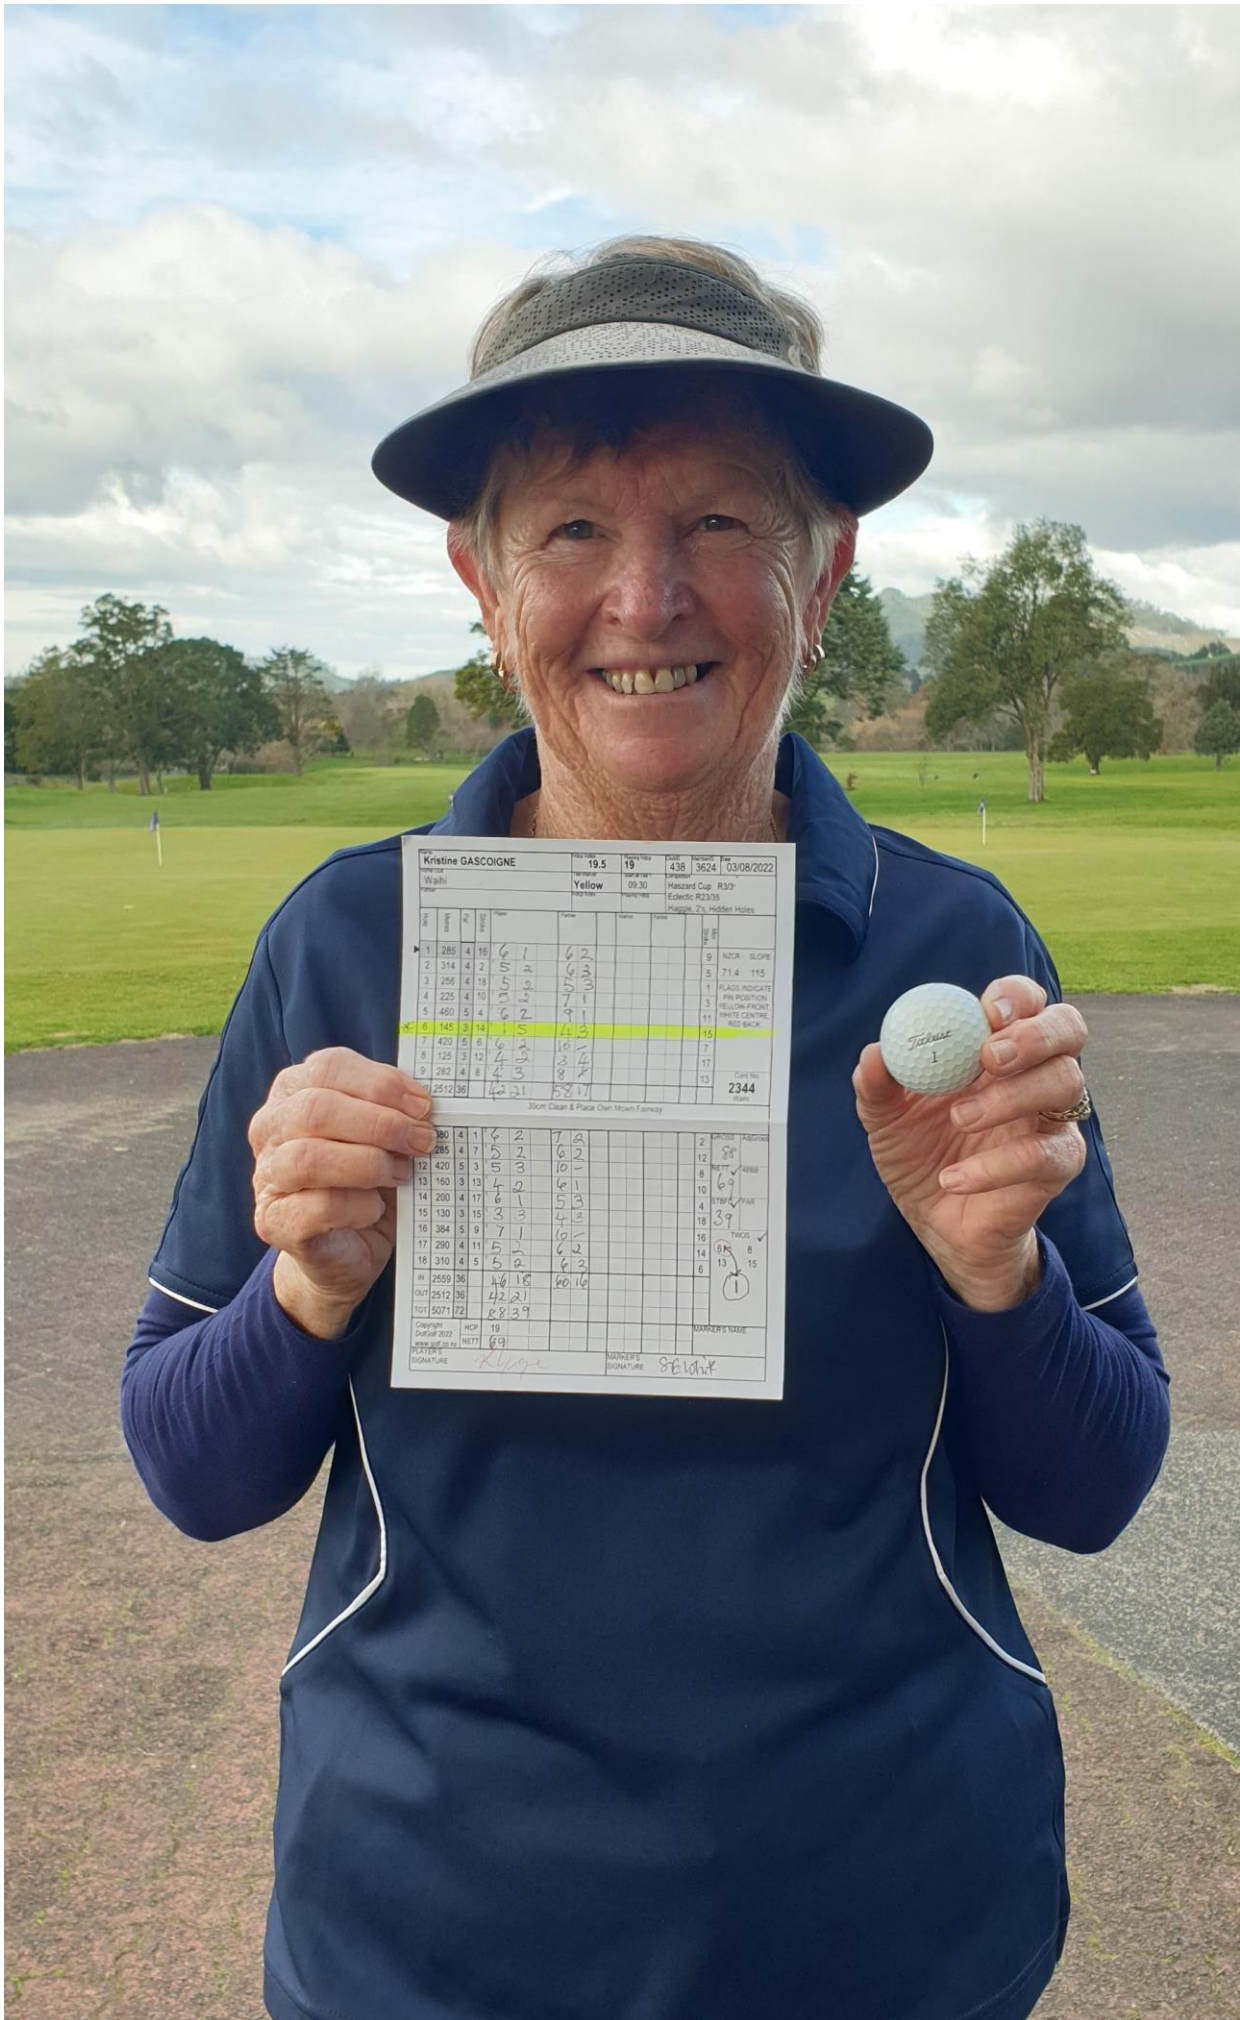

In the afternoon haggles, Wayne Brierley had the best score with 38 points, followed by Andy Roche with 37. Next was Madsen Harison 36, Frank Van Hattum (again) with 35, and then Terry Gerbich, and Kelly Exelby, both with 34.

SATURDAY LADIES: A field of 17 ladies contested a nett haggles, and Michelle Libby (who had the same score on Wednesday!) was first with a nett 69, ahead of Martine Milicich with 70. Next were Robyn Kirby (71), Karen Diggelman (72), and Bev Ireland (73).

SATURDAY MEN: The morning haggles, division 1 field was won by Allen Sarjant with 37 points, followed by John Giffney, and (him again) Jim Powell, both with 36. Next were Daryll Denyer (35), Tim Parish, and Terry Gerbich, had 34 points, while John Libby, and Allen Smith, both with 33.

In division 2, Harry Shepherd had the round of the day with 39 points, closely followed by Alex Standfield, and Graham Leigh, (who had 2 two's) with 38 points. Next was (believe it or not!) Des Johns with 37, and Graham O'Dwyer had 36 points.

In the afternoon haggles the top score was 35 points scored by David Morris, with a log jam of Michael Matutinovich, Nigel Sanderson, Murray Fraser, Jacob Seymour, all scoring 34 next. Damian Dunlop, and Mark Hume, were then next with 33, while Paul Weaver, and Vaughn Meads both scored 32.
